

The Affordable Care Act - The Race for Compliance is On!

The first compliance dates for the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (commonly known as "Healthcare Reform") are right around the corner. The Capital Region Human Resources Association invites you to kick off the 2010-2011 program year on September 15, 2010 with attorney Amelia A. Klein to learn:

- What employers must do for plan years that begin on or after September 23rd;
- How to administer young adult coverage under the ACA;
- How a plan loses "grandfather" status, and what the impact is, including first-dollar preventive care coverage,
- The new internal and external appeals requirements.

Amelia M. Klein is a Member of Bond, Schoeneck & King, PLLC, located in its Albany, NY office. She is graduate of the University at Albany, State University of New York and Fordham University School of Law.

From the smallest fringe benefit to executive suite compensation, Ms Klein advises employers of all types and sizes on the design and compliance of employee benefit programs, including all types of retirement plans, health and welfare plans, cafeteria and flexible spending account plans, severance and early retirement incentive programs, incentive compensation and nonqualified deferred compensation arrangements. Ms. Klein is an adjunct professor at Albany Law School of Union University and a regular columnist and Senior Editor for the Journal of Pension Benefits. She is also the President of the Board of Directors of the New York Employee Benefits Conference, Vice Chair of Empire Education Corporation and the Treasurer of the Legal Aid Society of Northeastern New York. Ms Klein has been listed in Best Lawyers in America® for the past four years.

This program has been submitted for 1.5 credit hours toward PHR and SPHR recertification through the Human Resource Certification Institute (HRCI). For more information about certification or recertification, please visit the HRCI homepage at www.hrci.org.
